Echo Magazine is Arizona's premier LGBT biweekly magazine offering news, features, classifieds, arts and entertainment reviews. The magazine is free and it is available at 180 plus distribution points across Arizona. EchoMag.com, is our website with an app, and includes updated features and news that is not in the magazine, a community calendar listing all LGBT events and a link to our digital edition of the magazine. Echo in 2014 celebrated 25 years in business! Our reader surveys show over half of our readers are in the prime 25 to 55 age range, and 90% of all readers/users were likely to buy a product or service they saw in the magazine or on-line. Echo offers a wide range of marketing solutions from print, on-line, events, video, sponsored content, and augmented reality
